

Are you a seasoned community educator interested in working for a growing, mission driven organization dedicated to increasing outreach and education in elder abuse prevention?

ElderSAFE™ Center (“ElderSAFE”), an award-winning program of Charles E. Smith Life Communities, is the first comprehensive healthcare-based elder abuse prevention program in the region. ElderSAFE provides education, temporary shelter and advocacy on behalf of abused and neglected older adults.

ElderSAFE is currently expanding its team to hire an experienced community educator. This grant-funded position will serve to enhance the program’s elder abuse awareness efforts throughout the region and increase the community’s capacity to respond to this growing issue.

Responsibilities

- Provides elder abuse awareness education to allied professionals working with older adults (including mandatory reporters), families, caregivers, and older adults throughout Maryland, DC, and Northern Virginia
- Represents ElderSAFE at coalition meetings, expos and conferences
- Collects data and writes progress reports on delivered trainings
- Develops curricula in collaboration with the team
- Other duties as assigned by the director

Qualifications

- B.A.; Masters preferred
- Ability to effectively communicate orally and in writing
- Ability to positively engage with the public in representing ElderSAFE
- Significant experience leading interactive trainings for diverse audiences in small, medium and large group settings
- Experience and sensitivity in working with victims of trauma (elder abuse, domestic violence, sexual assault)
- Bi-lingual speaker desired but not required
- Ability to work independently and with a team
- Extensive travel required within metro region; reliable car needed to perform duties.

We offer a competitive salary and excellent benefits in a friendly, fast-paced, team-oriented environment. To learn more, please send resume and salary requirements to: Charles E. Smith Life Communities, Attn: Chris Stamps, Recruitment Manager, 6121 Montrose Road, Rockville, MD 20852, Fax (301) 770-8511; Email: stamps@ceslc.org EOE.

Charles E. Smith Life Communities (CESLC) is one of the largest and most highly regarded nonprofit elder care organizations in the nation. Founded in 1910 as the Hebrew Home for the Aged, Charles E. Smith Life Communities now serves more than 1,100 older adults daily in multiple residences situated on a beautiful 38-acre campus in Rockville, Maryland. CESLC brings together six living options on its campus, each with its own warm personality and specialized services. There are choices for independent living, assisted living, and post-acute care, as well as long-term care and secure memory care.