2018-2019 Membership Form

October 1, 2018 - September 30, 2019

By becoming a member, you become a part of a social justice movement that works to change how Maryland residents, organizations, and systems respond to Intimate Partner Violence (IPV)!

With your support, MNADV can achieve:

- Increased collaboration with victim service providers, survivors, community members, policy makers, and systems across all actions;
- Increased potential for success through a unified voice in the movement to end violence against women;
- Increased expertise and resources for addressing complex issues;
- A collective approach for statewide systems change and social justice efforts;
- Impact on local, state, and national policies;
- The capacity, growth, and quality of domestic violence services through trainings and technical assistance.
- Education for the residents of Maryland on the issues of intimate partner violence.
